

Supplementary Figure 1(S1). Social distancing rates in the Municipality of Foz do Iguaçu, Paraná, Brazil between February and October 2020. Data were adapted from the official website <https://inloco.com.br/>. The blue line indicates the objective that would be considered ideal to reduce viral spread, and the gray line indicates the variations in social isolation achieved in the period.